

YALDA HERBS[®]

THE LONGEST NIGHT WISHES
YOU THE LONGEST LIFE

ABOUT YALDA

Yalda is a traditional celebration held in winter. The term Yalda is Persian, which means “birth”. On December the 21st, the longest night of the year, the Iranians welcome the winter.

This is when, according to mythology, Mithra, the goddess of the light, was born. Her birth put an end to the battle between the dark and the light. People therefore celebrate the victory of the light. The Yalda festival is very important in the Persian tradition, just as important as Christmas is. Yalda is about being together, looking out for each other, and feeling the love of the family. Yalda is celebrated by staying up all night, being together, eating special treats, and reading poetry and literature out loud. And of course, there is tea. Lots of tea.

It is a great feeling of warmth and love that we are honored to bring it to your life with Yalda Herbs.
